

CHRISTMAS

True or False

- |    |   | True                  | False                 |
|----|---|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| 1  | Santa's reindeer engage in a yearly dance-off to decide their Christmas Eve positions.                              | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 2  | In Iceland, it's customary to exchange rubber chickens as Christmas gifts.  | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 3  | The tradition of hanging mistletoe started when an ancient wizard used it to hide from his annoying relatives.      | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 4  | The classic Christmas movie "A Christmas Carol" was originally a novel written by Charles Dickens.                  | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 5  | The world's tallest Christmas tree ever displayed was over 200 feet tall and adorned in the city of Seattle.        | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 6  | The tradition of Christmas stockings originated when Santa accidentally dropped a sock full of toys down a chimney. | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 7  | In a parallel Christmas universe, gifts are delivered by flying penguins instead of reindeer.                       | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 8  | The song "Jingle Bells" was originally composed for Thanksgiving, not Christmas.                                    | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 9  | Rudolph's red nose is the result of a sunburn he got during a tropical vacation.                                    | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |
| 10 | In the North Pole, elves take daily breaks for snowball fights to relieve stress.                                   | <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> |

CHRISTMAS

True or False

- |    |   | True                             | False                            |
|----|---|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| 1  | Santa's reindeer engage in a yearly dance-off to decide their Christmas Eve positions.                              | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 2  | In Iceland, it's customary to exchange rubber chickens as Christmas gifts.  | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 3  | The tradition of hanging mistletoe started when an ancient wizard used it to hide from his annoying relatives.      | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 4  | The classic Christmas movie "A Christmas Carol" was originally a novel written by Charles Dickens.                  | <input checked="" type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/>            |
| 5  | The world's tallest Christmas tree ever displayed was over 200 feet tall and adorned in the city of Seattle.        | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 6  | The tradition of Christmas stockings originated when Santa accidentally dropped a sock full of toys down a chimney. | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 7  | In a parallel Christmas universe, gifts are delivered by flying penguins instead of reindeer.                       | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 8  | The song "Jingle Bells" was originally composed for Thanksgiving, not Christmas.                                    | <input checked="" type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/>            |
| 9  | Rudolph's red nose is the result of a sunburn he got during a tropical vacation.                                    | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |
| 10 | In the North Pole, elves take daily breaks for snowball fights to relieve stress.                                   | <input type="radio"/>            | <input checked="" type="radio"/> |

